BOAT ON FINAL LAP
IN RACE WITH TRAIN

Gar II Jr. Leaves Hampton Roads Despite Unfavorable Weather Conditions.

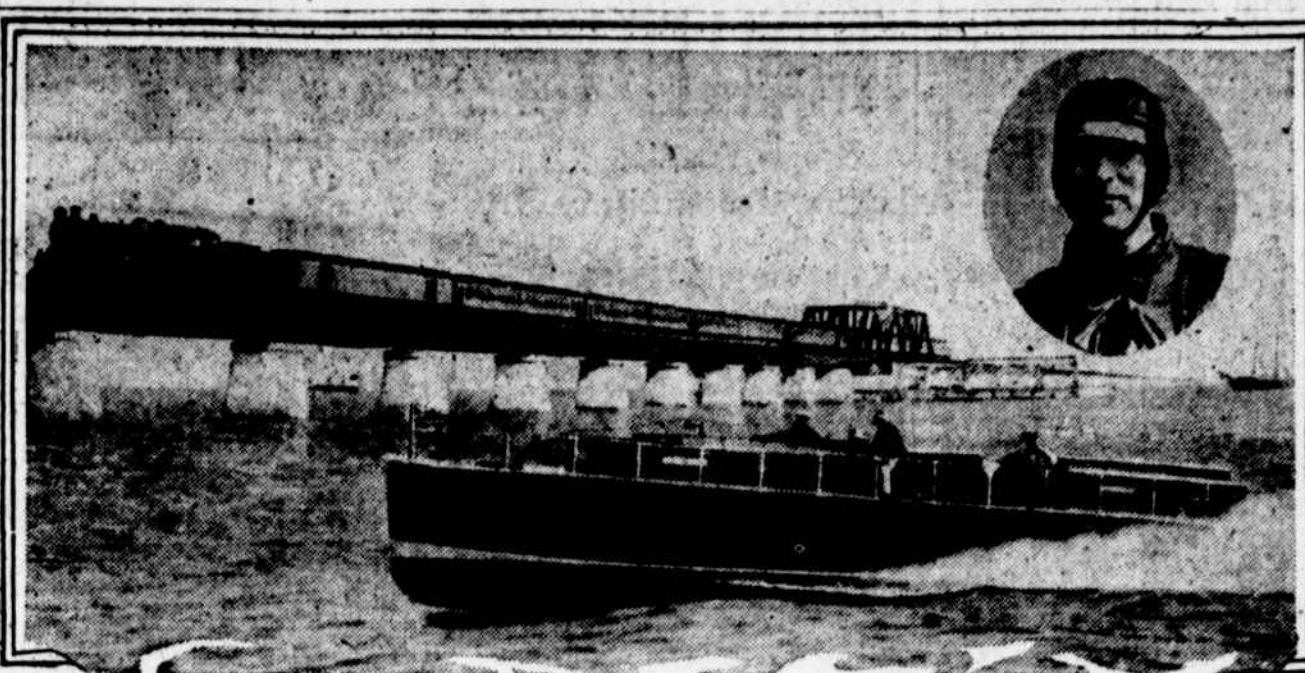

NORFOLK, Va., April 23.—Despite unfavorable weather conditions, Gar II Jr., left Hampton Roads at 6 o'clock this morning on the last leg of his voyage to New York, which he hopes to complete in ten hours. He still has twelve hours in which to reach New York in quicker actual running time than the Atlantic Coast line train which left Miami at the same time he did. Wood has covered 903 miles in thirty-four hours.

HUNGARY TO PENALIZE
FOREIGN REPORTERS

BUDAPEST, April 23.—A bill in the National Assembly provides that any correspondent of any foreign newspaper will be held responsible and punished with five years at hard labor if the paper he represents publishes any news item or editorial unfavorable to Hungary.

The Syndicate of Foreign Newspaper Correspondents addressed to the National Assembly and the government a memorandum that they will quit if the bill is placed on the statute books. As nearly all representatives of foreign newspapers are Hungarian citizens residing in Hungary, it is self-evident that news from

THE SPEEDBOAT, GAR II, JR., which today started on the last lap of its race to better the running time of the Havana special between Miami and New York. The boat has 12 hours within which to reach New York.

MONEY SCARCITY
HITS VLADIVOSTOK

Plenty to Eat and Enough to Wear, But Lack of Coin Hurts Trade.

TOKYO, April 23.—Residents of Vladivostok have plenty to eat and plenty of clothes, but no money, according to a correspondent of the Kōkai News Agency who has just returned from that city.

"Good beef can be purchased for 20 cents a pound," he says, and continues: "A good suit of clothes costs about one-third what they do in America, and other things in proportion. The only thing the people lack is money to spend. Coin has virtually disappeared from circulation and nobody will accept the paper notes. Even the Government employees are paid in food, clothes and tickets for use with the public utilities."

"The plenitude of these necessities is explained by the fact that huge stores have been imported into Vladivostok for shipment into the interior and are being held there indefinitely. These stores are being drawn upon."

"A few miles out of Vladivostok to the north conditions are very different. There the population has neither money nor supplies and hunger and cold have taken liberal toll of the Russians. The Chita authorities have been sending clamorous demands that Vladivostok share her supplies with the rest of Siberia, a call to which the local authorities have shown no disposition to respond, even if the Japanese would let them."

"These latter have been taking the stand that until it is certain that Japan will not have to fight China they will not permit the exportation of anything that may later be used against the Japanese forces."

"The lack of acceptable money in Vladivostok is resulting in business stagnation. Anyone with good money can buy anything he wants and cheaply, but in its absence nothing can be sold. Business houses are fast closing their doors and factories are shutting down."

NURSES GET DIPLOMAS
AT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Nine members of the graduating class of the Training School for Nurses, Children's Hospital, were awarded their diplomas last night in Epiphany Parish Hall, 1317 G street northwest.

Speakers were Commissioner Cuno Rudolph and Maj. Julia Stimson, superintendent of the army nurse corps. Presentation of the diplomas was made by Admiral Willard H. Bronson, president of the hospital's board of directors. The graduates are the Misses Stella Gracasso, Margaret H. Larson, Anne D. Thorne, Olive Lockwood, Donella Schoonover, Florence M. Kimber, Edith L. McKee, Helen M. Meeker and Lois J. Jeter.

Students to Don Overalls.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 23.—To get inside information concerning labor problems, fifty Princeton students are going to don old clothes and search for jobs this summer, it was announced today.

Results of their quests are to be made known at regular weekly meetings.

RATS MINUS BRAIN
ARE ABLE TO THINK

Scientist Finds by Experiments Cerebrum Is Not Seat of Mental Process.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 23.—Experiments with rats will revolutionize biological and psychological systems of thought, Dr. Karl S. Lashley, of the University of Minnesota faculty and formerly of Johns Hopkins University, declared today. Dr. Lashley has been conducting experiments for more than a year.

The results of these experiments tend to show, Dr. Lashley said, that the seat of thinking is not in the brain. He is not yet prepared definitely to locate that seat, however. By removing parts of a rat's brain Dr. Lashley has found that rats so operated on are not inferior mentally to normal ones. As data stands now, he says, it would seem that animals so treated are much superior to their normal brothers and sisters.

"Take rat No. 19, section 3, as he has catalogued it for instance. This rodent, which lost part of its brains, had extensive destruction in the frontal and parietal regions," said Dr. Lashley. "She had a paresis of the right leg, which made her walk stumbling and uncertain while a disturbance of the face and excessive length of teeth gave her an expression of extreme stupidity."

"She seemed to wander to aimlessly, rarely reacting to stimuli which influenced normal animals. Several people who saw her remarked her stupidity and predicted that she would never learn a difficult double platform box problem that I set before her. This also was my impression."

"Yet the animal learned the problem in twenty-seven trials, which is less than one-fifth of the average trials required by normal animals and in overtraining tests showed a constancy of performance rarely equaled by normals."

Dr. Lashley quoted numerous other similar instances of the brainless rat having performed feats that were believed to be beyond the powers of the normal rats.

"I believe," he said, "I am on the verge of an important discovery. I am satisfied other failures can be attributed to laboratory technique. I am near the end of my experiments."

TERM ENDS BUT CONVICT
INSISTS ON REMAINING

GENEVA, April 23.—The governor of the prison at Bellinzona was obliged to ask the aid of the police to expel an Italian burglar named Moraro, who had been sentenced to two years' imprisonment followed by expulsion.

The prisoner refused to leave his cell after the expiration of his term, stating that he was perfectly comfortable where he was, and did not want to change his quarters and seek work.

Gendarmes transported the burglar across the frontier, but he laughingly told them that he would return shortly, since he liked the prison at Bellinzona. He is not the only man who has been impressed by the leniency with which prisoners are treated in Switzerland.

GERMANY CAN'T PAY
SAYS SWEDEN ENVOY

Allies Blind Not to Foresee Result of Invasion, Declares Ex-Premier Branting.

STOCKHOLM, April 23.—Occupation by the allies of more German territory will only keep the flame of revenge burning in every German heart, declares former Premier Hjalmar Branting, head of the Swedish delegation to the league of nations, in a signed article in the Söndagspress.

"So it is Marshal Foch who is going to convince the German people that they can pay annual payments of six and seven billion marks gold until the days of their grandchildren in 1963," inquires Branting. "And he will show them they can do this without falling into slavery and even without deluging allied countries with German products resulting in an economic disaster."

"Without doubt Marshal Foch is a military genius of the first order, but the most perfect strategy is of no avail against the fundamental laws of life and economics. These laws can neither be destroyed nor changed by cannons and armies. The costs of this occupation will only increase the economic difficulties of Germany and of the whole world. But the thing that will grow will be the hatred of different peoples in our unfortunate Europe. In spite of her armed bands Germany is for the moment incapable of making military resistance. But imagine with what feelings a great people see troops advance into their country after all the sufferings they have endured for six years. One must be blind to fail to see the consequences. The Nemesis of history both during and after the war has spoken strongly enough of the oppressors of the past. What will be the next step in this foolish policy?"

WOMEN IN PULPIT
BARRED BY BISHOP

Head of A. M. E. Zion Church Will Restrict Pastorates to Men Ministers.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 23.—Colored women will never occupy a pulpit in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church as long as Bishop W. L. Lee presides over the destinies of the fifth Episcopal district of the denomination.

So declared the negro divine here, serving notice that the A. M. E. Zion Church is at the parting of the ways with the Methodist Episcopal Church in so far as the elevation of women to the ministry is concerned.

"We have been busy trying to follow the footsteps of the Methodist Church for 125 years," said Bishop Lee.

"We have been trying to save the souls of our own people and we have even saved some of our white brethren, who we found greatly in need of salvation. In fact we represent the oldest daughter of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the only child of the fold, in fact, whoever left home without an unpleasant feeling resulting."

"I don't know how much farther we shall be able to follow the tenets of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but that it has opened the door to women preachers, I do hope the A. M. E. Church won't open the door very widely; I never was much in sympathy with women preachers."

"The movement for women preachers has struck our ranks and there are many colored sisters who would be ordained, but when one of them comes before me, I shoo her away."

TOWN LAWS AMISS;
HANGING DEFERRED

Rumor Says Village Forfeits Courthouse If Condemned Man Is Executed.

BENTON, Ill., April 23.—Dame Rumor, the cause of millions of sorrows, the destroyer of truth, the wrecker of homes, the instigator of trouble and the guilty mistress of innumerable wrongdoings, has appeared in a new role.

Cloaked as the protector of a sacred record belonging singularly to Franklin county, Ill., the lady of gossip appeared on the scene to warn against death sentence for the murder of Fritz Heick at Valer, February 17 last.

If you hang this man, said Miss Rumor, the ground on which your courthouse sits and which was deeded to the county in September, 1839, will, under the terms of the agreement, revert to the heirs of those granting the property.

Much ado was caused. Dust was removed from the shelves, records were delved into and the instrument in question was produced.

It was found that our lady of idle talk was misinformed. The land on which the courthouse is built and other property in the city, consisting of twenty-one acres, was deeded to Franklin county September 18, 1839, by John and Elizabeth Twine and Walter and Sarah Akin, with no such stipulated strings attached thereto.

Counsel for Savant, the convicted man, have motioned for a new trial and a hearing will be given the emotion this month. If the rehearing is denied and the Governor and Supreme Court do not intercede in the behalf of Savant, Franklin county will relinquish its distinguished record and the official hanging of a man will be registered in the archives of this little mining community.

Gets $5,000 for Injury.

MARION, Ohio, April 23.—Pretty Miss Jane Luft sprained her ankle when she stepped into a hole in the street. She sued Marion for $5,000, and, after viewing the member, the all-men jury awarded her the sum asked.

It doesn't take an x-ray to see the bones in a crash-hooper's hand.

The Ill Wind Blows.

CHICAGO, April 23.—A particle of dust in a woman's eye cost Gus Hoppe, of Racine, $50. Hoppe met Miss Esther Schreiber, and as he passed she winked. He followed her, until she called a policeman. Miss Schreiber told the court she didn't mean to wink the way Gus thought she did, but that a mote of dust had lodged in her eye. The judge fined Gus $50.

Mgr. McDermott Dead.

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 23.—The Right Rev. Monsignor C. A. McDermott, aged sixty-eight, pastor of St. Peter's Catholic Church, McKeesport, died Monday. He was a native of Ireland. He received his education at St. Charles College, Ellicott City, Md. At one time he was pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, Connellsville.

J. WALLACE ALLEN.

Burial services for J. Wallace Allen, who died Sunday of heart strain, were held yesterday afternoon at Winchester, Va., following funeral services at his home, 5106 Fourteenth street northwest, Tuesday. The Rev. Earl Wilkey, assisted by the Rev. John T. Huddle, officiated.

Mr. Allen's death is believed to have been directly due to shock resulting from a fight with a burglar who entered his home last November. During the struggle Mr. Allen tore the intruder's revolver from his hand and shot him twice.

Mr. Allen is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Catherine Allen.

WILLIAM F. SICARD.

The body of William F. Sicard, of the Wyoming Apartments, who died Tuesday afternoon of heart trouble, will be buried this afternoon in the family burying ground at Rome, N. Y.

Mr. Sicard, who was fifty-two years old, was a draughtsman in the bureau of construction, Navy Department. He had lived in Washington for the past twenty-five years. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Margaret Sicard; his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Floyd Sicard, and a sister.

LOLA M. RAYTOR.

Mrs. Lola M. Raytor, wife of Owen K. Raynor, of the Potomac Electric Power Company, died yesterday at her home, 419 Eleventh street southwest, following a stroke of apoplexy. Beside her husband, she leaves three sons and four daughters.

CAPT. WILLIAM H. DAVIS.

Capt. William H. Davis, formerly a steamboat captain on the Potomac, died late yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stephen F. Howison, 3223 Park place northwest. He was seventy-seven years old.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from his daughter's home. Services will be conducted by the Rev. John E. Briggs. Burial will be in Congressional Cemetery.
